MESSAGE FROM CHAIRWOMAN JENNIFER STODDARD HAJDU

Fellow Dallas County Republicans,

Democracy begins at the grassroots -- with you! We are responsible for who is elected to lead our county, state and nation. It is our civic responsibility to get involved in government by engaging voters, both new and old.

Critical to such engagement is a UNIFIED Dallas County GOP. In our effort to instill and preserve conservative values in our families, faith, children, and communities, we must act as one unified Party. We can disagree about our various conservative beliefs, but in the end, our beliefs are all conservative. The alternative – the far-right liberal agenda – is not acceptable. It is tearing our county and our country apart, driving unimaginable inflation, and has increased crime in our neighborhoods and communities. We cannot afford petty fights against each other. If we fight each other, we are doing nothing more than allowing the liberal agenda to win. So, let us band together. The time is NOW! We must FIGHT FOR FREEDOM and safety as a Team!

Jennifer Stoddard Hajdu Party Chairwoman

DCRP Logo Policy

The Dallas County Republican Party ("DCRP") logo is the most visible and recognizable expression of the DCRP brand. We understand and appreciate that outside parties and groups may want to show affiliation with the DCRP. However, use of the logo can give the impression that the DCRP favors or endorses a particular candidate, cause, or group over another. It also can imply that the DCRP has sanctioned certain groups or activities. In some situations, this could lead to legal liability. As such, use of the DCRP logo is strictly limited to DCRP authorized activities. Authorized activities include traditional Precinct Chair activities that are in alignment with the DCRP policies, but specifically exclude:

- Advocating for a candidate (including yourself) or any candidate activity
- Advocating for a cause or policy
- Use by other clubs or groups
- Personal objectives
- Criticizing any elected official, candidate or other person or entity
- Any event that is not sponsored directly by the DCRP

Use of the DCRP logo is strictly prohibited without the express written permission of the DCRP. Exceptions may be made for news media, educational use, or events for which the DCRP is a major sponsor. This type of exception must be arranged through the Party with the prior written consent of the Chair. To request use of the logo outside traditional Precinct Chair activities, please send a detailed request to the Chairwoman at: jennifer@dallasqop.org.

We appreciate your cooperation!

What Is A Precinct Chairman?

A Precinct Chair is the central manager for the smallest unit in the Republican Party – a precinct. As the only elected party official of the precinct, Precinct Chairs have roles and responsibilities in, and to, the Republican Party. They also get to have a lot of fun and meet a lot of people!

As a Precinct Chair you will participate in a number of critical activities such as communicating with your precinct, organizing block walks and phone banks, identifying voters and activists within your precinct, helping with campaign signs, serving as an election worker, and participating in conventions. You are also a member of the County Executive Committee which is an important function of our County Party.

What Does a Precinct Chairman Do?

Your number one job as a Precinct Chairman is to maximize the Republican vote in your precinct. You do this by:

- Communicating with the voters in your precinct get to know them
- Identifying potential Republican voters in your precinct
- Registering Republican voters
- Informing voters
- Working the elections ensure integrity on our elections
- Turning out the Republican Vote!
- Block walks
- Phone banking
- Distributing signs

Communicating with voters in your precinct – get people in your precinct involved! As Precinct Chair, your main job is to get as many voters in your precinct to vote for Republicans in elections as possible. The best way for people to take action is by being involved in campaigns and invested in elections. It is your charge to get people in your precinct involved in the any area where they have the most interest. They are volunteers and volunteers usually start with something small and then make a larger commitment as they are more invested in something. Do not be afraid to ask people to help. You will find that people often just need to be asked. When volunteers feel valued, they are likely to become committed to the cause and their role within the Party will increase.

Identifying Voters. Be the first to welcome new neighbors and let them know you are their Republican Precinct Chair. This can be a good way to start a conversation which can determine their political leanings.

Learn who your consistent Republican voters are so you can count on their support. Learn who is a "swing voter," or who does not usually vote, so that you might have a discussion with them about the dangers of the policies of the Democrat Party. MANY swing voters do not agree with the woke, socialistic policies of the current Administration. Now is the time to engage them in conversation and invite them to join the Republican Party.

The Party Executive Director and the Party Data Committee can assist you with obtaining known data from the GOP Data Center about the voters in your precinct. Make an appointment with the Executive Director to learn how to cultivate this data.

Also know who the Democrats are, so that you can make relationships and have conversations which might switch their views. If that is not a possibility, you can prevent wasting time, or so that you can leave them alone when it comes to Republican Party politics.

Registering Republican Voters. Always be ready to register a Republican to vote by becoming a Volunteer Deputy Registrar ("VDR"). VDRs take a short training course in person or online. An oath is administered by the county Voter Registrar, and you are then allowed to accept a completed voter registration application card from a new voter and take it to the Voter Registrar. Contact the Party Executive Director for details.

Informing Voters. You should be a political leader in your neighborhood. Keep in touch with Republicans in your area and let them know of current political events, issues, upcoming elections, and opportunities for involvement with the Party, clubs, or campaigns. Distribute campaign literature, bumper stickers and yard signs to decorate your precinct.

Working Elections. It is critical that as a Precinct Chair, you lead the charge in your precinct to protect our elections and promote election integrity. The best way to do that is to work as an election judge, alternate judge, poll worker or poll watcher. It is your job to recruit loyal Republicans in your precinct to join you in becoming and election worker. The Party offers a number of trainings for elections workers. Encourage the Republicans in your precinct to not just complain about elections integrity, but to get involved as a poll worker. Contact the Party Executive Director for additional information on how to get involved!

Turning Out Our Voters. All the prior steps mentioned lead up to this one. Once you have identified your voters, registered the Republicans to vote, and kept them politically informed, it's time to make all of that count – get them to the polls to vote Republican! The most common activities that remind voters to vote are walking door-to-door ("block walking"), making phone calls ("phone banking"), and distributing candidate literature and signs. It is important to identify and assist voters in your precinct who need to vote early by mail and offer assistance. With SB 1, mail in voting has changed. Please contact the Party Headquarters for assistance with the new mail on ballot process. Coordinate assistance in your precinct for transportation of voters in need to their polling place. Efforts to turn out voters are often referred to as "Get-Out-The-Vote" efforts or "GOTV".

Serve On the County Executive Committee

As Precinct Chairman, you also sit on the County Executive Committee. The County Executive Committee is made up of the County Chair and all the Precinct Chairs in the county. As the representative of your precinct, you should make every effort to attend each meeting. It is important that the Executive Committee meetings meet quorum so that important business can be conducted. You will learn important information at every meeting. Proxy votes are not allowed. (Tex. Elec. Code §171.026).

Attendance is Required. A Precinct Chair who fails to attend four (4) our more Executive Committee meetings, is subject by statute to removal as a Precinct Chair. (Tex. Elec. Code § 171.029(a)). It is critical for the Party to have active Precinct Chairs. If you are unable to perform the duties and attend Executive Committee meetings, please contact the Party Chair or Executive Director to discuss.

Be Involved in Your Local Elections

As Precinct Chairman, you have responsibilities in your local elections. In addition to maximizing the Republican vote, ways to be involved include:

Primary Election — Campaigning. There is nothing in the Texas Election Code, Texas Republican Party Rules, or the Dallas County Republican Party Bylaws prohibiting a Precinct Chair from getting involved in contested primary races or non-partisan local elections, including the endorsement of candidates. However, consider carefully the possible implications before publicly taking sides in a contested primary race. Contested races sometimes create hard feelings or damage relationships.

Primary Election—Working at the Polls. WORKING THE POLLS IS THE MOST EFFECTIVE WAY TO PRESERVE ELECTION INTEGRITY! In Dallas County, in Primary Elections the County Chairs in conjunction with the Elections Department, appoint Election Presiding and/or Alternate Judges for each Voting Center the county. Election Judges, also in conjunction with the Elections Department, appoint clerks to assist them. Serving as an Election Judge is a critical part of preserving the integrity of our elections for the Party. Working the polls is also an important component to getting to know voters in your area. The Party needs as many people as possible to serve as election workers. Not only should you, as Precinct Chair, agree to work, you should encourage and recruit others to work. Talk to the patriots in your precinct and encourage them to serve as judges, clerks and poll watchers! It is very important that you coordinate service an elections worker with the Party Chair or Executive Director so that the Party can coordinate the appointments with the Elections Department. There are over 450 Voting Centers to cover.

General Election—Campaigning. Precinct Chairs should be eager to assist Republican candidates in any way possible. Becoming involved in a campaign may include going door-to-door ("block walking"), making phone calls ("phone banking") or handing out campaign material. Please volunteer to distribute signs for ALL REPUBLICAN candidates in your precinct. It is particularly important for Precinct Chairs to be involved in these efforts as you know your precinct better than anyone.

All Elections—Working at the Polls. WORKING THE POLLS IS THE MOST EFFECTIVE WAY TO PRESERVE ELECTION INTEGRITY! In every precinct where our Republican candidate for Governor in a gubernatorial election won, we are eligible to have a Republican Election Judge in the next General Election. Precincts where our candidate for Governor came in second are entitled to have a Republican as Alternate Judge. Serving as Judge or Alternate Judge is very important to our Party's ballot integrity. This is further incentive to get-out-the-vote (GOTV)! Names for Election Judges must be submitted by the County Chair to the Elections Department for approval by the Commissioner's Court the summer preceding the general election – remind them to submit your name as soon as possible!

Be Involved in Conventions

As Precinct Chairman, you have responsibilities in the convention process.

These include:

Precinct Convention. The Election Code designates the Precinct Chairman as the Temporary Chair of the Precinct Convention (Tex. Elec. Code §174.025). If the Precinct Chair is unable to serve, another eligible convention participant may do it (Tex. Elec. Code §174.025(b)). Instruction packets to run your precinct convention are provided by Texas Republican Party or the County Chair prior to the convention.

SD/County Convention. Precinct Chairmen are encouraged to not only participate in their Senatorial District or County Convention (you must be elected at your precinct convention), but to serve on one of the temporary convention committees (contact your County Chairman who make these appointments).

State Convention. As grassroots leaders, a Precinct Chairman should try to get elected as a delegate to the State Convention at their Senatorial District Convention. If you are interested in serving on a temporary convention committee, contact your SREC member who recommends appointments to the State Party Chairman.

National Convention. Every four years, three delegates and three alternate delegates are elected at the state convention in their Congressional District caucuses or At-Large to attend the Convention of the Republican National Party. The delegates at the National Convention select the nominees for President and Vice President.

How Do I Become A Precinct Chairman?

It's easy! You get elected in your precinct or appointed by the County Executive Committee. So what does that entail?

Methods of Becoming a Precinct Chairman

Election for Two-Year Term. Candidates for Precinct Chairman run for office in the Primary Election each even-numbered year. A one-page notarized application shall be submitted to the County Chairman within the filing period, usually September to December. Individuals may also apply as write-in candidates (Tex. Elec. Code §171.0231). If only one candidate applies to be on the ballot, there will be no election and that person will be declared elected to the office (Tex. Elec. Code §171.0221). If there is more than one candidate, the winner is determined by majority vote of those voting in the precinct in the Republican Primary or Runoff Election. The term of office begins twenty (20) days after the Runoff Primary Election is held.

Filling a Vacancy. Any eligible person may fill a vacancy in your precinct for Precinct Chairman at any time. Appointment is by majority vote of the County Executive Committee present at a properly called meeting with a quorum, unless otherwise stipulated by the Texas Election Code (Tex. Elec. Code §171.024).

So Who's Eligible?

Qualifications to be a Precinct Chairman:

- Be a resident of the precinct (TEX. ELEC. CODE §171.023)
- Be a qualified voter in that county (Tex. Elec. Code §161.005)
- Not be a county, state, or federal public officeholder or candidate for such federal, state, or county public office
- In a general election year only, be affiliated with the Republican Party by voting in the Republican Party Primary Election, Runoff Election, or by taking an oath of affiliation (Tex. Elec. Code §§162.001 162.012)

What if I Need to Resign?

We hope you will serve out your full term as Precinct Chairman. However, some situations make it necessary to leave early, such as moving out of your precinct, losing your voting rights, or becoming a public officeholder or candidate. If so, immediately provide a letter of resignation so the Party can recruit a successor.

Party Basics

Before we go into the best practices for organizing and working your precinct it is important to have a general understanding of where the precinct fits in the Republican Party at the county, state and national levels, as well as to understand the convention process, the Texas election cycle and to know what documents govern the party.

Below is a graphic that shows how the foundation of everything in the Republican Party is the Grassroots Volunteers. There is no Republican Party without the local volunteer. There are no conventions, or anything else.

Republican Party Structure

NATIONAL PARTY ORGANIZATION

Republican National Committee ("RNC")

The RNC is composed of all state party chairmen plus one committeeman and one committeewoman from each state and U.S. territory. Officers are elected by the RNC. Texas Republicans elect their RNC committeeman and committeewoman at the state conventions held in presidential election years.

National Committeeman

State Chairman

National Committeewoman

STATE PARTY ORGANIZATION

State Republican Executive Committee ("SREC")

The SREC is composed of the State Chairman, Vice Chairman, and one man and one woman from each of the 31 state senatorial districts ("SDs"). Delegates elect this committee at the state convention held in May or June of the even-numbered years. All convention delegates elect the State Chairman and a State Vice-Chairman. Each SD elects a Committeeman and Committeewoman to represent their respective district, which is then ratified by the convention. Officers are either elected or appointed, according to SREC bylaws. SREC members attend important state level meetings and help organize and oversee Party activities in their respective SDs and at the state level.

State Chairman ♦ State Vice Chairman ♦ Committeeman & woman from each SD

COUNTY PARTY ORGANIZATION

County Executive Committee ("CEC")

The County Chairman and Precinct Chairmen are elected by popular vote at the Primary Election held in March of each even-numbered year. Together, they comprise the County Executive Committee. Republican Primary Election voters vote countywide for the County Chairman. Voters residing in each of the county's voting precincts elect their respective Precinct Chairmen. Officers are either elected or appointed, according to the CEC's bylaws.

County Chairman → Precinct Chairmen

PRECINCT ORGANIZATION

Precinct Chairman and the Grassroots Volunteers

The only elected Party official in the precinct is the Precinct Chairman. The Precinct Chairman obtains volunteers and organizes them in the way most fitting to the precinct. The precinct is the smallest unit of our Party; however, it is the most essential unit. It is here, at the grassroots level, that voters are identified and turned out on Election Day.

PARTNERS & COALITIONS ORGANIZATIONS

Organizations work in partnership with the formal Party organization to bring specific groups of citizens into the Republican Party. They often serve as an intermediary step in getting people to assume leadership positions with County Executive Committees or with campaigns. While these Partners do not perform traditional Party functions, they are critical in complementing and adding to the strength of the Party organization. For a list of current official RPT auxiliaries, visit www.texasgop.org ("Partners" is at the bottom of the homepage under Resources).

Documents Governing Our Party

TEXAS ELECTION CODE

The Texas Election Code is the set of laws passed by the State Legislature governing Texas elections, voting systems, candidates, and political parties. When you see "Section" referenced in this manual, it refers to the Texas Election Code (TEC). The 2022—2024 code may be downloaded at www.statutes.legis.state.tx.us/Docs/SDocs/ELECTIONCODE.pdf. The Texas Election Code is also available online to research at www.capitol.state.tx.us or www.statutes.legis.state.tx.us. These websites also have a link to all of the Texas Statutes, as well as to the Texas Constitution.

REPUBLICAN PARTY OF TEXAS RULES

Per the Texas Election Code, the Republican Party of Texas has adopted rules to govern the conduct of precinct, county/senatorial district, and state meetings and conventions. These rules continue in effect unless changed at a state convention. Therefore, the rules in effect at any given time will be dated as of June of the last state convention year. It is important to note that the RPT Rules do not, and cannot, conflict with the Texas Election Code. RPT Rules may be accessed online at www.texasgop.org/rules.

REPUBLICAN PARTY OF TEXAS PLATFORM

The Republican Party of Texas has a statement of basic beliefs that outline its political philosophy. This platform is adopted at each state convention. The platform in effect at any given time will be dated as of June of the last state convention year. Additionally, the State Republican Executive Committee often passes resolutions that speak to current issues. The current RPT Platform may be accessed at www.texasgop.org/platform.

STATE AND COUNTY PARTY BYLAWS

The State Republican Executive Committee ("SREC") has adopted bylaws which direct the conduct of the State Party. Copies of the bylaws are distributed to each SREC Member.

County Executive Committees ("CEC") also adopt bylaws or rules to direct the conduct of their County Party. Bylaws address the special needs found in the individual county and cover items such as frequency of County Executive Committee meetings, who may convene a meeting, duties of officers, the number of precinct chairs necessary to constitute a quorum, and the establishment of permanent and special committees. Amendments to the bylaws must be submitted at the CEC meeting immediately preceding the annual Organizational Meeting of the Party.

Republican Conventions

RPT Rules governing conventions may be found at www.texasgop.org/rules.

PRECINCT CONVENTIONS

Held between the Primary Election and the third Saturday after the Primary Election. Purpose: To elect delegates and alternates to the county/senatorial district convention and propose resolutions for the county/senatorial district convention to consider. Precinct conventions may take place on any date from the Primary Election date until the date of the county or district convention. The date, place, and specific starting time within each county are to be set by the County Chairman and Executive Committee on or before the day of the drawing for position on the general Primary Election ballot. Conventions are usually held at the precinct polling location, but the County Chairman or Executive Committee may set the location outside the precinct.

The Precinct Chair or, in their absence, any registered Republican voter from the precinct may convene the convention. Eligible participants voted in the Republican Primary or affiliated with the Republican Party and reside in that precinct. Minutes of the proceedings (forms are distributed by the County Chairman or RPT to Precinct Chairs) must be delivered to the County Chairman within three days or mailed within two days. Instructional videos may be available about conducting a precinct convention. A script and the forms will be in the convention packet.

COUNTY/SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTIONS

Held on the third Saturday after the Primary Election. Purpose: To elect delegates and alternates to the state convention and propose resolutions for the state convention to consider for the Platform. The time and location are to be set by the County Executive Committee if there is only one senate district in the county.

A county convention is held when the county is completely within one senatorial district. A senatorial district convention is held when the county is divided between two or more senatorial districts. The incumbent County Chairman (which may be different than the one elected in the Primary Election) is the temporary county convention chairman.

The temporary senatorial district convention chairman is to be elected by the precinct chairs within that county's senatorial district. Delegates are those elected from their precinct conventions. Minutes of the proceedings (forms are provided to the temporary county and SD convention chairmen by RPT) must be delivered to RPT within 5 days. Prior to or on the date of the drawing for the ballot position on the general election ballot, a County Executive Committee that contains multiple senate districts may vote to hold the district conventions in a consolidated location.

STATE CONVENTION

Held in May or June of even-numbered years, following a Primary Election. Purpose: To elect one man and one woman from each state senatorial district to serve on the State Republican Executive Committee, to elect a State Chairman and Vice-Chairman, to adopt the Republican Party of Texas Rules, to adopt the State Party platform, and to select the Legislative Priorities. The specific date, time and location are to be set by the State Republican Executive Committee.

In presidential election years, the state convention also elects one man and one woman to serve on the Republican National Committee, elects delegates and alter- nates to the national convention, and elects representatives to the Electoral College. For an overview of RPT State Conventions, please visit www.texasgop.org.

NATIONAL CONVENTION

Held in June or July of Presidential election years. Purpose: to nominate candidates for President and Vice President of the United States and adopt the National Party platform. The specific date, time and location are to be set by the Republican National Committee.

Organizing Your Precinct

Recruiting volunteers will help you to work your precinct. The precinct is the smallest political unit of registered voters. Many elections in the past have been won or lost by less than one vote per precinct. However, most elections can be won with effective precinct work — it is a proven fact! In order for your work to be most effective, you must have a strong organization within your precinct.

Many precincts contain too many voters to organize a whole precinct by yourself. You will benefit from having several volunteers to assist you. The goals of your volunteers are the same as yours — Identifying voters, Registering GOP voters, Informing voters, and Turning out GOP voters. All the information gained from these activities should be reported back up the chain to the Precinct Chairman, so you can maintain data for your entire precinct.

Precinct Organization Chart

Here is a Precinct Organization Chart. This method of organization has proved ideal in many precincts, but as Precinct Chairman, you know your precinct best. Tailor it to precinct's fit your geography, needs. and availability volunteers. You may also have volunteers who do not commit to the position of Block Worker or Precinct Captain but choose to help as they are available.

Precinct Chairman

You are the central manager of the entire precinct.

Neighborhood Captains

(3–5 appointed per Precinct)

Break your precinct down into its sub-divisions, major neighborhoods, apartment or complexes. Choose your most capable volunteers to serve as Neighborhood Captains and manage each of these divisions. Neighborhood Captains report directly to the Precinct Chairman.

Suggested Precinct Organization

Precinct Chairman (1 elected per Precinct)

Neighborhood Captains (3-5 appointed per Precinct)

Block Workers (3-5 per neighborhood or apartment)

Voters (the target of each member of the precinct organization)

Precinct Chair Handbook Page - 10

Block Workers (3–5 per sub-division, neighborhood, or apartment complex)

Break your sub-divisions and neighborhoods down into blocks. Assign (or have your Neighborhood Captains assign) Block Workers to one or a few blocks each. Block Workers report directly to their Neighborhood Captain.

Voters

Voters are the target of each member of the precinct organization. Reach voters in order to get to know them, register the Republicans to vote, inform them about candidates and issues, and get them out to vote. Recruit them to volunteer, too!

Recruiting Volunteers

The most logical place to start recruiting volunteers is with those closest to you — family, friends and close neighbors. Then spread your net a little wider to your church, community and service clubs, school associations, exercise class, retirees and students.

You will be surprised at the number of people who want to help, but they just don't know how to get started. That is your job; to ask them to help, to make them feel welcome and important, and to teach them how to do their job. The #1 reason people don't volunteer is because no one ever asked them!

As you will read in the next section, identifying and canvassing the voters in your precinct will help you learn who will vote Republican. However, it is also a great way to learn who you can recruit to be part of your precinct team. Find out who you can count on to go door-to-door, make phone calls, distribute yard signs, write newsletter articles, plan events and meetings, put bumper stickers on their vehicle, or contribute money to the county party.

Canvassing the Voters

Identifying voters and recording that information is called "canvassing". Whenever you meet someone in your neighborhood, be sure to keep notes about their political affiliation and interests. You can also organize "block walks" or "phone banks" in your precinct to gather this information. There is software available that can easily be installed on a smart phone or tablet which allows for canvassing electronically. This information can be downloaded into a voter database to keep up with Republican voters in each precinct.

Here is a sample script for any precinct worker to use when meeting people:

- a. "Good morning/afternoon/evening, my name is ______. We're taking a survey in our neighborhood. Do you have a few moments to help me complete my information? Do you plan to vote for (Republican Candidate) for Governor?
- b. If the person answers "no", thank them politely and leave.
- c. If the answer is "yes", ask if they are registered to vote. If not, give them a voter registration card.
- d. If you are a Deputy Voter Registrar, collect the voter registration card before you leave. NEVER MENTION REGISTRATION to a person who is not interested in supporting Republican candidates.
- e. Complete the information on your phone or canvass sheet.
- f. When finished, thank them and move on. Do not take more than 5 minutes at a residence.
- g. Keep going back until you have contacted every family in your area.

You may also use canvass sheets when block walking and phone banking for GOTV (discussed later in this handbook). Canvass sheets should be customized for those needs. But here is a sample canvass sheet for initial meetings with people in your precincts (or to record information you already know about people):

Sample Canvass Sheet

In accordance with the Precinct Organization Chart suggested earlier in this manual, Block Workers should provide copies of their canvass sheets to their Neighborhood Captains, and Neighborhood Captains should provide copies of their canvass sheets and their Block Workers' canvass sheets to the Precinct Chairman so that all the information ends up in one place where it can be organized and maintained.

Maintaining Records

The Precinct Chairman is responsible for maintaining an up-to-date permanent record of information on all voters in the precinct.

GOP Data Center:

The first place you want to enter voter information is in GOP Data Center, the master Texas voter file. GOP Data Center is a product of the Republican National Committee but is administered by each State Party. You may contact the Executive Director of the Party and request assistance to access to the voter file for your precinct, and instructions on how to login. GOP Data Center training sessions are available upon request.

Electronic Spreadsheets

The easiest way to keep track of your precinct's registered voters is to maintain a computerized database. Microsoft Excel© is an excellent program for creating and maintaining data in a spreadsheet. Excel provides the spreadsheet template, and you simply create fields (columns or rows) and enter the data by clicking on a box ("cell") and typing as normal. You can create fields that match your canvass sheets exactly.

Utilizing the Data

Once you have collected and saved your data — use it! Be sure to let campaigns know what households want yard signs, bumper stickers or campaign literature (or offer to pick it up and distribute it for them). Follow up with anyone who requested a voter registration card or needed extra time to fill it out. Put those to work who said they would be willing to volunteer – whether as a block worker, neighborhood captain, phone banker, etc. Inform the county party if you find any possible donors. Keep in touch with "undecided" voters who you might be able to persuade to vote Republican. All of the information you have canvassed is incredibly valuable to Republican campaigns in your county and in the state.

Get-Out-The-Vote (GOTV)

GOTV efforts happen right before and during the Early Voting period, especially during the 72-hour count-down period before early voting and on Election Day. The two most common GOTV efforts are block walking and phone banking.

Block Walking

Block walking is the most effective form of volunteer voter contact. It can take up several hours of your day but gives voters the opportunity to connect with you face-to-face and ask questions. Voters are often times impressed that you took the time to come visit them in person.

Block walking involves organizing a group, or several groups, to walk door-to-door and remind Republican voters to vote (don't remind Democrats to vote!). Block walks usually happen during the two months before the general election and during the Early Voting period. (Block walking can also be useful for canvassing voters, as mentioned earlier in this handbook).

Many times, local campaigns or county parties will arrange block walks and just ask you to recruit volunteers and be a part of it. However, there is no reason you cannot take the initiative to host one of your own. This is a perfect example where the Precinct Organization Chart can be of great help. If you can divide up your precinct into neighborhoods, and then blocks, with volunteers to cover each section, you've got your ground covered. You may join up with other precincts if you like, especially if there are targeted races which cover a few precincts.

Arrange one central location and a time for everyone to meet before and after the walk. You can arrange shifts if you like two-hour increments are usually appropriate. Assign leaders (preferably Neighborhood Captains or other experience participants who know your precinct well) to lead each group. You will need to put together a "walk packet" for each leader. Walk packets should be provided on a clip board with pen and need to include:

List of targeted Republican addresses and maps to those houses

The easiest way to do this is through "GOP Data Center" which has the ability to pull an organized list with maps for you, according to those you have flagged as Republicans. The other option is to do this individually via your canvass records. Organize the addresses into the appropriate blocks and perhaps print maps yourself from online sources such as MapQuest, Yahoo! Maps or Google Maps.

• Canvass sheet to record any new information you find out about these voters You can use the model provided earlier in this handbook and customize it for a block walk, or "GOP Data Center" can create canvass sheets specifically for the walk sheets you pull. Include Name and Phone Number. Were they home or did you leave literature at their door? Have the people voted yet? Will they vote for your candidate? Include a space for additional comments.

Have cars available to drive each group to their walk locations. Consider providing water, coffee and/or snacks before and after the walk.

Literature with polling locations and times is an excellent item to distribute to voters when walking. Many times, local campaigns or your local election office will have items like these. Otherwise, consider creating some yourself (you can get polling locations and times from your County Chairman or local elections office). Only distribute these items by hand to the voter or leave it at their doorstep; NEVER put anything in or on the mailbox — this is illegal.

Here is a sample script for your walkers to use when speaking to voters at the door:

Walk Volunteer:	"Hello, Mr./Ms My name is, and I am a volunteer for (candidate's name or county party). I am stopping by to remind you to vote in theelection on (dates and times). Your polling location is" (Hand them literature.)
Voter:	"Thank you."
Walk Volunteer:	"Will you need a ride to the polls?" (see Note below)
Voter:	"Yes" or "No".
Walk Volunteer:	"If you need a ride, we'll be glad to have someone call you and make arrangements."
Voter:	"Thank you."
Walk Volunteer: "	Thank you for your support and have a great day."

NOTE: Communicate with the local Party or local campaigns about possibilities for Precinct Chair Handbook rides to the polls before offering this.

Be prepared to answer basic questions about the candidate(s) or issues you are supporting or being a Republican in general. If voters ask questions you cannot answer, direct them to particular campaigns or to the county party or local election office.

The Precinct Chairman, or the organization in charge of the block walk, should receive all the completed canvass sheets from the walk. Reviewing this data can inform you who you can stop visiting (wrong or gated addresses, those who have voted, or those who will not be supporting your candidate) or who to visit again during your next block walk (anyone who was not home or who has not voted yet). You may also learn other information like who may be interested in helping you in other ways than voting (they may want a yard sign or walk for you next time).

Phone Banking

Studies have repeatedly shown that having an informed, motivated volunteer talking with fellow voters over the phone is very effective for reaching many voters in a short amount of time. It's great for those who don't want to walk or don't feel comfortable on the computer, and they can come and go on their own time.

Phone banking involves having a group of volunteers scheduled to arrive at a particular place where they use their cell phones with call lists and phone scripts that are available. Many local campaigns or county parties will arrange these and just ask you to recruit volunteers and be a part of it. However, there is no reason you cannot take the initiative to host one on your own. Phone banking can be a great way for you to canvass voters.

This will take a few people from your precinct team to prepare and at least one to oversee the activity and be available to answer questions. You may join up with other precincts, especially if there are targeted races which cover a few precincts.

Possible phone bank locations are the county Party headquarters, campaign headquarters, or local (non-corporate) businesses. Try to use a place that has easy access and parking for volunteers. Avoid making calls from home, if possible.

The best place to pull call lists is from GOP Data Center or from your own canvassing records. You only want to pull names and phone numbers of those voters that have been identified as Republican voters. Divide the call list up among your volunteers. Create canvassing sheets (using model provided earlier in this handbook, or GOP Data Center can create call lists you pull) for them to record the results of each call. (Include Name and Phone Number. Did they answer or did you reach a voicemail box? Have the people voted yet? Will they vote for your candidate? Include a space for additional comments.)

Below is a sample phone script for your volunteers to use. Customize this to the election or campaign to which you are referring, and to whether you are calling during Early Voting or the 72-hour period.

NOTE: You can obtain polling locations from your county chairman or local elections office. Communicate with the local party or local campaigns about possibilities for rides to the polls before offering this.

Phone Volunteer: "Hello, Mr./Ms. _____. My name is _____, and I am a volunteer for (candidate's name or county Party). I am calling to remind you to vote in the ______election on (dates and times). Your polling location is _____." (See Note

Voter: "Thank you."

Phone Volunteer: "Will you need a ride to the polls?" (see Note below)

Voter: "Yes" or "No".

Phone Volunteer: "If you need a ride, we'll be glad to have someone call you and make arrangements."

Voter: "Thank you."

Phone Volunteer: "Thank you for your support and have a great day."

Be prepared to answer basic questions about the candidate(s) or issues you are supporting, or being a Republican in general. If voters ask questions you cannot answer, direct them to particular campaigns or to the county Party or local elections office.

The Precinct Chairman, or the organization in charge of the phone bank, should receive all the canvass sheets filled out during the phone bank. Reviewing this data can inform you who you can stop making phone calls to (wrong phone numbers, those who have already voted, or those who will not be supporting your candidate) or who to call again during your next phone bank session (anyone you did not reach or who has not voted yet). You may also learn other information like who may be interested in helping your cause in other ways than voting (they may ask for a yard sign or to come make calls with you next time).

Early Voting vs. 72-Hours

The main difference between communicating with voters during the Early Voting period and the 72-hour period is urgency. During the Early Voting period, voters usually have one to two weeks to get to any of the nearby polling locations. During the 72-hour period, voters only have one day and maybe one location left where they can make their voice heard. Our County uses countywide voting centers during Early Voting and on Election Day. Remember to incorporate this into any scripts you use for your block walkers or phone bankers.

Thank Your Volunteers!!!

Be sure to thank your volunteers in person or in writing for their sacrifice of time and resources. Invite them to victory celebrations that campaigns may be putting on, or host one yourself.

Without volunteers, the work cannot get done.

We hope that your volunteers will continue to be involved in future Republican efforts.

Voting Requirements

Keep this information in mind or on hand when encouraging voter registration.

Qualifications for voting (TEX. ELEC. CODE §§ 13.001-13.002)

- You must be a citizen of the United States.
- You must be at least 18 years of age on the day of the election.
- You must be a resident of the county.
- You must not be a convicted felon (unless the sentence is complete).
- You must not be declared mentally incapacitated by a court of law.
- You must be registered to vote.

How to Register to Vote (TEX. ELEC. CODE §§ 13.001-13.002)

- Complete a voter registration application available at any government office and mail or present it in person to your county Voter Registrar's office.
- Complete a voter registration application and give it to a Volunteer Deputy Registrar to deliver to your county Voter Registrar's office.
- A person may register to vote at any time, but the application must be received by the Voter Registrar at least 30 days before an election in order to vote in that election.
- A person may register to vote at 17 years and 10 months of age, but may not vote until age 18.

How to Vote Early by Mail (TEX. ELEC. CODE §§84.001-84.003)

- Early voting requirements have changed! Be sure you understand the new process.
- Send a request for a mail-in ballot to your county Elections Department via the internet or by mail.
- The application must be in writing and signed by the applicant. It must have the name of the applicant, the address at which the applicant is registered to vote, the address to which the ballot is to be mailed, for which election the application is being made, and the reason for needing to vote by mail (out of town during entire voting period, over age 65, disabled, or sick). The official form contains all required information and methods of identification.
- Upon approval, a ballot will be mailed to you with instructions on how to mail back the completed and marked ballot.

Tools of the Precinct Chairman

Republican Platform. All good Republicans should know what they believe. Copies of the Republican State Party platform are available at www.texasgop.org (under "About the Party").

Democrat Platform. All good Republicans know what they don't believe. Copies of the Democrat State Party platform are available at www.txdemocrats.org (at date of publishing, under "Issues").

Precinct Convention attendance list. Voters who attend their precinct convention are a prime source for volunteer recruitment.

Voter Registration Cards and Change of Address Cards. Always be ready to register a Republican to vote by becoming a Deputy Voter Registrar ("DVR"). DVRs take a simple oath from the county Voter Registrar and are then allowed to accept a completed voter registration application card from a new voter and take it to the Voter Registrar.

Historical General Election Results by Precinct. This can be found on the Secretary of State's website at www.sos.state.tx.us/elections (search "Election Results") or through your local elections office. By keeping track of this data over several election cycles, it can be determined if the precinct is improving for Republicans, declining in strength, or staying the same.

These items are particularly important:

Canvassing Data/Sheets. Use these to keep notes when you meet new people or walk your neighborhood. A sample canvass sheet is found in this handbook.

Sample Ballot. Get acquainted early with the races on your ballot. It will surprise you how many people do not know the offices for which they can vote.

Voting Center Locations list. Voters frequently do not know where they can go vote (and it is common for locations to change). Contact your County Chairman or local elections office for this list.

Candidate contact list. This list should include each candidate's name and the contact information for their campaign office. This will be useful for you and also to direct people in your precinct who have questions or are interesting in certain issues. They may also want to volunteer for the campaign.

Applications for Ballot by Mail. You will encounter people who say they will support Republican candidates but will be away on Election Day and during the early voting period. Also, anyone who is 65 years of age or older on Election Day is eligible for early voting by mail. By providing these people with a mail-in application, you will gain a vote that likely would not otherwise be cast. You can get these from your local elections office.

Precinct Chairman Resources

County Party Staff and Officers

Your County Chairman and Executive Director should be your main point of contact. In addition, the staff at the headquarters will be the best resource to answer questions about local issues. If your County Executive Committee has elected officers, they may be good resources for specific inquiries like attaining copies of minutes (Secretary), questions about funds (Treasurer) or legal questions (General Counsel).

Local County Elections Office

Your local county election office can provide you with detailed maps of your precinct and the most recent list of registered voters for your county. You may access this information at: www.dallascountyvotes.org.

Republican Party of Texas Staff

If you have questions regarding statewide issues, RPT staff is available during regular business hours, Monday through Friday. RPT Headquarters is located at 211 E. 7th Street, Austin, TX 78701, and the phone number is 512-477-9821. The DCRP will organize a number of Campaign, Grassroots/Activist, Communications and "GOP Data Center" trainings that will incorporate the RPT staff.

www.TexasGOP.org

The RPT website hosts a wealth of information on Party news and activities, as well as contact information for elected officials and party leadership organizations. Other resources include RPT Rules, RPT Platform, the Party Structure and the Convention Process. Visiting and directing others to our website is a great way to stay informed.

GOP Data Center

GOP Data Center is a voter database system that was developed by a private vendor on a contract with the RNC, and the RNC is the national administrator. The data is updated by the RPT to assist grassroots volunteers, Party leaders, and candidates to contact voters. The system allows you to access information about all registered voters in your area and also to identify voters you have met by Party and issue affiliations. You can request access forms from RPT Headquarters to be granted access. See more information under "Maintaining Records" section.

Smart phone apps may be used for block walking and phone- banking in order to canvass the unidentified voters and get out our vote to the targeted voters during campaigns. They may also be used to register new Republican voters who moved to your county from other counties and states. Users can access the list of addresses with key info about the voter, a map of the area, and the script.

State Republican Executive Committee (SREC)

Each state senatorial district is represented by one man and one woman who oversee the Party organization in that area. They are volunteers who assist your county Party with personal, hands-on attention. Their contact information is available at www.texasgop.org under "About the Party, Leadership Directory".

Texas Legislative Council (TLC) – District Maps

TLC serves the Texas Legislature and legislative agencies, but also serves as an information resource for state agencies and the citizens of Texas. You may view and print election district maps from their website, www.tlc.state.tx.us, or contact them at (512) 463-1155 to order detailed maps of your precinct. Also see "Governing Documents" section.

Glossary of Political Terms

BALLOT/ELECION INTEGRITY — Ballot and/or election integrity efforts are those which ensure that proper voting rules and procedures are maintained at polling places, in order to prevent fraudulent voting. Election integrity committees are often put together at the state and local levels, and send volunteers to monitor polling places.

BLOCKWALK — Form of voter contact where supporters are organized and go door-to-door in precincts to visit with voters, collect information about their beliefs and advocate for a candidate or political party. This is considered one of the most effective forms of voter contact when done using informed, enthusiastic volunteers. Some campaigns may hire paid walkers in order to cover more ground, but this should be done only when volunteer resources are not sufficient.

CAMPAIGN MANAGER — Campaign managers are appointed by political candidates to manage their campaigns. The campaign manager has responsibility for the smooth functioning of the candidate's campaign, leaving the candidate free to run for election, instead of seeing to the details of his/her campaign. Specific responsibilities include: keeping the campaign on track and on plan; management of finances; recruiting volunteers; productions and distribution of campaign literature and ads; scheduling appearances and events; fundraising; and providing the candidate with pertinent information on issues.

CAMPAIGN PLAN — The most important document a campaign creates detailing the strategy, structure, message, budget and timeline. It is the roadmap to victory and keeps the campaign accountable and on track.

CAUCUS — For our Party's purposes, a caucus is a meeting by district during a convention. At the State Convention, delegates caucus by Senatorial District to elect the permanent members of the different convention committees; to elect a State Committeeman and State Committeewoman; and to recommend a man and a woman for State Chairman and State Vice Chairman. In presidential years, delegates also caucus by Congressional District to elect delegates to the National Convention and Presidential Electors, and to nominate a National Committeeman and a National Committeewoman.

COUNTY ELECTION BOARD — A County Election Board is established in each county for the General Election for state and county officers, a Special Election for an officer regularly elected at the General Election, and any other election ordered by a county authority held at county expense. The Board consists of the County Clerk as Chair, County Judge, Voter Registrar, Sheriff, and County Chair of each political party required to nominate candidates by Primary Election. The Election Board appoints the members of the Signature Verification Committee from a list submitted by the County Chairs of the parties holding Primary Elections and approves the procurement of election supplies necessary to conduct elections.

COUNTY ELECTIONS COMMISSION — The County Elections Commission consists of the County Judge as Chair; the County Clerk as Vice Chair; the County Tax-Assessor Collector as Secretary; and the County Chair of each political party that made nominations by Primary Elections for the last General Election for state and county officers. The Commission is tasked with administering the election. If a county chooses to employ an Elections Administrator, that person is appointed by the Elections Commission.

ELECTION JUDGE, GENERAL ELECTION — At the recommendation of the County Chairman, a voter of the precinct carried by that party's candidate for Governor in the last general election is appointed by the County Commissioners' Court to serve for a one or two-year term as Election Judge of that precinct. The Election Judge conducts the election within the precinct, selects the election clerk, and maintains the sanctity of the ballot. Because of the high responsibility of the Election Judge, he/she is accorded the powers of a State District Judge while conducting the election.

ELECTION JUDGE, PRIMARY ELECTION — The County Chairman, with approval of the County Executive Committee, appoints the Primary Election Judge for each precinct. The Election Judge of the Primary Election has all the powers and duties of the General Election Judge.

GENERAL ELECTION — General elections are held in even-numbered years for county, state, and federal offices. The elections are held on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November. Nominees for these positions are chosen the previous spring in Party primaries.

GET-OUT-THE-VOTE (GOTV) — Describes campaign activities during early voting and the final 72-hours of a campaign that focus on turning out all identified supporters through mail, phones, block walking, etc.

GRASSROOTS — This is a common term used especially in Republican politics to refer to local Party activists. These volunteers are the building blocks of the Party.

GUBERNATORIAL — This word means of or relating to a governor. A "gubernatorial election" is the election where the Governor is elected.

MICROTARGETING — Micro Targeting is a new tool for candidates and campaigns that allows them to reach voters with tailored messaging using a combination of consumer data, advanced marketing techniques and traditional political targeting.

NOMINEE — A nominee is the candidate selected by voters in a Republican or Democrat party Primary Election to seek election in the general election. In Texas, a nominee must receive a majority of votes cast the Primary Election.

PLATFORM — Platforms are statements of grassroots sentiment and historic party principles. Platforms are adopted at State and National Conventions. At the State Convention, the permanent Platform Committee is charged with recommending the Party Platform to the full Convention for debate, amendment, and ultimate adoption by the delegates.

PRIMARY ELECTION — Primary elections in Texas are organized and conducted by the Republican and Democrat Parties, and are financed by the State of Texas. Texas holds its primaries the second Tuesday in March in even-numbered years. Primary elections determine each party's nominee for county, state, and national General Elections. A majority of the vote is required to win a Primary Election. If no majority is obtained, a Primary Runoff is held between the two candidates receiving the most votes.

PHONE BANK — An organized phone center where volunteers gather to make calls to potential voters to identify their political beliefs, advocate for a candidate or party or turn out the vote. Phone banks can be done by a paid vendor or by supporters from home, but they are most effective when done using informed, enthusiastic volunteers at a central location and supervised by the campaign.

PRECINCT ("PCT") — The voting precinct is the smallest political subdivision within a county. A secondary use of the word "precinct" refers to the divisions of a county from which the County Commissioners, Justices of the Peace and Constables are elected.

REPUBLICAN — Texas has no voter registration by Party preference. A person affiliates with the Republican Party most often by voting in a Republican Primary Election. Voter registration cards are stamped at the Primary Election site to designate in which Party's Primary the voter participated. Affiliation may also be accomplished by taking the oath designated in Election Code section 162.007.

SWING VOTER — A voter who does not commit to voting for one Party, but is swayed by different candidates and issues. Each Party works to have these voters "swing" in their direction during elections

TRACKING POLL — These are conducted near the end of the campaign. They will measure the ballot test and determine if the money being spent on media and campaign activities is working and getting the desired effect.

UNDERVOTE — A ballot that has been cast but shows no legally valid selection in a given race or referendum.

VOLUNTEER DEPUTY VOTER REGISTRAR — A Volunteer Deputy Voter Registrar is a person officially authorized to register people to vote and to deliver signed applications to the County Voter Registration office. A Volunteer Deputy Registrar may never have been convicted of a felony and may work only in the county and only for the year in which he or she is sworn.
