

2026 DCRP Organizational Meeting Temporary Rules

1. All speakers are required to go to the microphone provided for any motion, debate, or other proper procedure under Robert's Rules. All speakers shall direct comments to the Chair.
2. The precinct chair offering proposed language for amendments shall be given first opportunity to address the committee on his or her proposal.
3. Debate by a CEC member shall be limited to two (2) minutes per speaker, unless extended by the chair.
4. Debate shall alternate between proponents and opponents, with debate ceasing when there is no opposing viewpoint or when the (3) speakers have spoken on each side.
5. Total debate on the Bylaws may not exceed 60 minutes; with debate on each Article limited to 12 minutes each.
6. After 60 minutes of debate on the Bylaws debate will end, and the body will vote up or down on the entire document as amended at that time.
7. Decorum will be enforced by the Chair, those refusing to abide by the Chair's admonitions may be removed.